MARK YOUR CALENDARS:

The Arc of Justice: The Incarceration (and Exoneration) of Darryl Hunt – Darryl Hunt was twice convicted of a 1984 murder he didn't commit. Although DNA testing proved his innocence, he was imprisoned for another decade before he was exonerated. Join us for a screening of the documentary "The Trials of Darryl Hunt" and an in-depth discussion on race, justice and the forces that helped shape Hunt's release. Darryl Hunt, Imam Khalid Griggs (founding member of the Darryl Hunt Defense Fund) and Phoebe Zerwick (investigative journalist) will join us for the event. Tuesday September 13, 2011, 4:00 – 7:00 p.m. at Ecumenical Campus Ministries (1204 Oread Ave., Lawrence, KS 66044)

Merienda Brown-Bag Lecture Series – Associate Professor Linda Lee will present "Adventures in Journalism: KU/UCR partnership" at the Merienda on Thursday, September 15th at noon in 318 Bailey Hall. Lee will talk about the relationship between KU and the University of Costa Rica over the last 15 years. A simple lunch of rice and beans will be served. For more information, visit <http://latamst.ku.edu/news-events/meriendas.shtml>.

International Business Journalist Visits – The School will host six international business journalists on Friday, September 16th as part of the U.S. Department of State Economic and Business Reporting Project. Arranged by the International Visitors Council of Kansas City, the journalists will be escorted to several classes and a visit to the Kansan / KUJH multimedia newsroom by Professor Mike Williams. Participants include: Mr. Asjadul Kibria, deputy business editor, Daily Prothom Alo (Bangladesh); Daniela Mihajlovska-Vasilevska, economic reporter, The Forum (Macedonia); Liam Francis Dann, business editor, NZ Herald (New Zealand); Gertrude Majyambere, senior reporter/ business desk, The New York Times (Rwanda); Ammar Ibrahim Mohammad Abdulgadir, reporter, Eylaf Weekly (Sudan); and Jihad Yazigi, editor-in-chief, The Syria Report (Syria).

Faculty lunch with Jim Small The J-School alumnus will speak to Max Utsler's 540 class and Barbara Barnett's 101 class on September 20th before having lunch with the faculty from 11:15-12:15 in room 303. Small is the managing director and vice president in Asia for Major League Baseball. To attend the faculty lunch, please email Penny Hodge.

Research Brownbag J-School colleagues are invited to attend the first research brownbag meeting of the semester. The meeting will take place Thursday, September 22nd from noon - 1:00 p.m. in 104 S-F. New faculty members Hyunjin Seo and Peter Bobkowski will discuss their research projects. Arriving late or leaving early based on your teaching schedule is not a problem. Presenters for the rest of the semester are needed. If you are interested, please contact Tien-Tsung Lee.

Faculty Visit with Thad Allender The J-School alumnus will speak to Carol Holstead's Visual Communications class Thursday, September 22nd at 4:00 p.m. in 100 S-F (which can accommodate up to 25 guests). He will be on campus and available Wednesday, September 21st after 1:00 p.m. and all day Thursday. If you would like to see Allender's presentation, send your students to his presentation to Holstead's class or have him visit your class, please email Carol Holstead. If you would like to attend the faculty lunch, please email Penny Hodge. Allender graduate from the J-School in 2002 and has worked as a photographer, director of photography at the Lawrence Journal-World and as a multimedia producer for USA Today. In 2007, he started Graph Paper Press, a web design company that develops WordPress templates and tools. Within two years, the company had 45,000 users worldwide and Allender left USA Today to devote his time to running his company. For more on Allender, visit
